

STARFISH

COLDPLAY TRIBUTE SHOW

BIOGRAPHY

On the 16th of January 1998 a band called STARFISH played a very special gig at the 'Laurel Tree' in London. Later on the band changed name to Coldplay.

14 years later, in 2012, four young guys decided to take that old name and show their love and passion for Coldplay's music creating the most faithful tribute show, including special effects and scenography.

Touring across Europe since 2017, headliners at Tribfest (the world's biggest tribute band festival which takes place in Driffield, UK) in 2019 and in 2022, these guys will take you through a journey spanning over two decades of Coldplay music from the classics to the most recent hits from the new album Music Of The Spheres.

